General Medical Faculty Committees
Responsibilities and Meeting Schedules

Faculty Advisory Committee
Meets: Quarterly each year with the Dean and Faculty Senators

A. There shall be an Advisory Committee of the General Medical Faculty consisting of twelve elected members from the voting General Medical Faculty with the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary-Treasurer, and immediate Past-Chairman of the General Medical Faculty. The Chairman of the General Medical Faculty shall serve as Chairman of the Committee. The Dean shall meet regularly with the Advisory Committee of the General Medical Faculty to apprise them of major decisions made by the Dean and by the Executive Faculty.

1. The functions of this Committee shall include:
   a. recommending actions to the General Medical Faculty.
   b. organizing meetings of the General Medical Faculty.
   c. arranging the agenda for meetings of the General Medical Faculty.
   d. consulting with the officers of the General Medical Faculty on matters of policy.
   e. reviewing the financial status of the Medical School with particular respect to conformity with short-and long-term goals of the General Medical Faculty.

Grievance Committee
Meets: As Needed by the Dean

A. The Grievance Committee shall elect its own Chairman and function as the Executive Committee or equivalent designated in the University statement on Academic Freedom, Tenure and Responsibilities. It shall consist of the Chairman of the General Medical Faculty, ex-officio, six representatives elected from the General Medical Faculty (three from Clinical and three from Basic Science Departments); and the Dean, ex-officio, or a representative appointed by him. The elected representatives shall serve for three-year terms. Initially, three Basic Science members and three Clinical Science members will be elected for three-, two-and one-year terms. After implementation, one new Basic Science member and one new Clinical Science member shall be elected each year. It is expected that a committee member who feels unable to rule objectively in a given case will withdraw from consideration of that case. The Chairman of the General Medical Faculty will appoint a replacement from the respective clinical or basic science faculty.

B. Matters appropriate for consideration by the Grievance Committee include, but are not restricted to:
   1. Matters relating to academic freedom, tenure and responsibilities.
   2. Complaints relative to dismissal of non-tenured faculty.

Nominating Committee
Meet: As Needed by the Vice-Chair of the General Medical Faculty

A. The General Medical Faculty will establish the Committee of 6 elected members by July 1 of each academic year.
B. The Committee shall consist of seven (7) members to include three (3) elected from the Basic Sciences and three (3) elected from the Clinical Sciences; chaired by the Vice-Chairman of the General Medical Faculty. Members will be elected for a two-year staggered term (i.e. three members will be elected yearly). A faculty member may serve only two consecutive terms.
C. The Committee shall propose at least two nominees for each position to be filled either as an officer, member of the Advisory Committee of the General Medical Faculty, Grievance Committee, Representative to the University Senate, and Representative to the Senate Committee on Faculty, Tenure, Freedom and Responsibility.
D. The list of nominees for each position shall be made known to the General Medical Faculty prior to May 1, and the Nominating Committee shall solicit further names from the General Medical Faculty at this time.
E. Additional nominations for these posts may be made from the floor at the annual election. Nominations from the floor must be accompanied by an assurance that the nominee will serve if elected.
F. Each year, on July 15, the Dean shall present to the Nominating Committee a list of positions to become vacant in the Standing Committees of the Executive Faculty and establish criteria for membership. The Nominating Committee shall propose at least two (2) nominees for each position to be filled and transmit the list of nominees to the Dean.
