

Fourth-year student named to Board of Directors of Southern Medical Association

Carolyn Scofield
cscofiel@tulane.edu
(407) 342-8809

Natalie Weiss is a fourth-year student at Tulane University School of Medicine. She's the youngest person ever to be appointed to the Southern Medical Association's Board of Directors. (Photo provided)