Match Day is a life-changing moment for medical students nationwide. At 11 a.m. CT on March 21st, they found out where they'll be training for residency. At Tulane University School of Medicine, 157 fourth-year students matched into residency programs across more than 25 states. This year, 28 students will stay in Louisiana, and 22 will continue their training at Tulane. Watch as students open their envelopes, celebrate with friends and family, and take the next step in their medical careers. Congratulations to the Class of 2025!
