

Tulane Living Well and Campus Health team up to provide free flu shots

SOM Communications

somcommunications@tulane.edu

September 16, 2025 10:00 AM

Tulane employees and students are encouraged to take advantage of the upcoming free flu shot clinics. (Photo by Carolyn Scofield)

Is your fall schedule full of football games, festivals, and family gatherings? Don't let the flu ruin your season!

Tulane Living Well offers an easy way for employees to stay healthy. On select dates in September and October, the clinic will host pop-up flu shot events uptown, downtown, and at the Tulane campus in Elmwood.

“Vaccination remains one of the most effective ways to reduce the risk of flu-related illness, hospitalizations, and even severe outcomes,” said A. Jenine Dabon, APRN, FNP-C, of Tulane Living Well. “By vaccinating, you help protect yourself and contribute to our campus community's health and safety.”

September 24, 2025, 9:30 AM to 2 PM: Downtown, SPHTM Diboll Gallery (Tidewater)

September 26, 2025, 9:30 AM to 2 PM: Downtown, SOM/Murphy Building Room 220

October 1, 2025, 9:30 AM to 2 PM: Wave City Market, 1415 Tulane Avenue

October 3, 2025, 9:30 AM to 2 PM: Downtown, Hutchinson Room 1810 (Old Bookstore)

October 6, 2025, 10:00 AM to 1 PM: Downtown, 1555 Poydras St, Bower's Auditorium (1st Floor)

October 14, 2025, 9:00 AM to 3 PM: Uptown, LBC, Pederson Lobby

October 15, 2025, 9:00 AM to 3 PM: Uptown, LBC, Pederson Lobby

October 21, 2025, 9:00 AM to 3 PM: Elmwood

Flu vaccines are a covered benefit, and employees have no out-of-pocket expenses. Employees are asked to bring their Splash ID and insurance cards to the flu clinic.

No appointments are necessary,

but you can schedule an appointment in advance here.

For students, Tulane Campus Health is holding flu shot events both downtown and uptown. Get more information and see the schedule here.