Tulane University School of Medicine physicians and practice groups were once again recognized by the community, earning spots on NOLA Family's 2025 Family Favorites list. With more than 85,000 votes cast, these honors reflect the trust families across the region place in Tulane doctors for compassionate, high-quality care.

This year's Tulane honorees span multiple specialties, from primary care to women's health and orthopaedics:

Favorite Allergist

Margaret P. Huntwork, MD

Favorite Family Physician

Vy Anh Mai, MD, MS

Favorite OB/GYN Doctor

Elizabeth W. Kelly, MD

Favorite OB/GYN Practice

Tulane Center for Women's Health

Favorite Orthopaedic Clinic

Tulane Institute of Sports Medicine

Favorite Orthopaedic Doctor

Kelly Hill, MD

Congratulations to all of this year's honorees for being trusted partners in care for families across our community.
