

About T-PEP Program

Tulane Parenting Education Program (T-PEP) Resource Center serves children ages 0-18 and their families who are referred by the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS). We provide parenting intervention services in Region 1, which includes Jefferson, Orleans, Plaquemines, and St. Bernard parishes. Services are provided at no cost to families.

T-PEP Resource Center is made up of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, family educators, parent partner, kinship navigator, and trainees.

Tulane Parenting Education Program (T-PEP) Family Resource Center

Tulane Parenting Education Program (T-PEP)

1340 Poydras Street, Suite 740

New Orleans, LA 70112

Office: (504) 988-9201

Fax: (504) 988-9202

Kinship Navigation Services (KNS)

About KNP Services

What is the Kinship Navigator (KNP) Program?

Our Kinship Navigator program serves as an information and referral network for kinship caregivers who are currently raising or fostering children.

Kinship caregivers may find themselves unexpectedly in this role, often without sufficient assistance to navigate the system of support necessary to meet their families' needs.

Our Kinship Navigator Program can help! We are here to further assist you on your journey as a kinship caregiver.

What We Offer

The Kinship Navigator Program connects kinship caregivers to helpful information and resources such as, but not limited to:

- Psycho-education
- Family Skill Building
- Parental Support
- Resource Linkage
- Connection with collateral referrals and resources
- Collaboration with My Community Cares (Boys Town Louisiana-New Orleans)

Our Vision

Tulane Parenting Education Program (TPEP) Family Resource Center offers this program to help you navigate any barriers that may arise in your family.

We want to assist you in identifying and accessing support services within the community.

Our vision is to help cultivate strong, stable, and successful families, and most importantly, help you feel empowered and supported!

