

Expectations of the ESIR resident:

- To be on time, tardiness will not be tolerated.
- To work diligently.
- To be courteous and professional to consulting services, no matter how absurd or inconvenient their consultation.
- To participate in as many cases as possible.
- To be prepared for morning rounds.
- To be on IR call Monday through Thursday while on service.
- To pass the core exam and be an excellent diagnostic radiologist.
- To leave the hospital when the work is done.
- To log procedures accurately and in a timely fashion.
- To be an outstanding team member.

I understand the expectations presented and understand that failure to meet expectations can result in dismissal from the ESIR program.
